

Justice Teaching Center

at  FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE

MISSION

To create a positive and consequential impact on the field of civic learning and engagement. The Center provides high impact, law-focused, civic education partnerships, resources, academic competitions, training, and research.

RESOURCES

- Standards-based K-12 civic literacy lessons, resources and classroom programs
- Civic learning strategies, academic competitions, and research-based models
- Civics programs for K-12, post-secondary settings, and civic groups
- Training for attorneys, judges, and teachers to support K-12 Justice Teaching partnerships

PROGRAMS

- Justice Teaching K-12 partnerships between teachers, attorneys, and judges;
- K-12 standards-based lessons and civic literacy programs;
- Civics and law academic competitions;
- Classroom visits and presentations;
- Mock trial simulations and mock congressional hearings;
- Civic and constitutional literacy sessions.
- Training, professional development, and other resources
- And much more

ANNETTE PITTS, DIRECTOR

 (863) 680-4664

 apitts@flsouthern.edu

 McKay Archives Building